Once we have completed a project, whether a commercial pool, domestic spa or sauna, we always aim to develop a long and positive relationship with our clients. We take a great amount of pride in helping you long after the initial installation.

This might cover regular servicing of pools, commercial maintenance or nothing more than some helpful advice on chemicals. Our team of ten engineers, backed by an extensive office staff, have the expertise and experience to fulfil the industry's wide range of service and maintenance requirements for both pool and wellness equipment.

Our team is ready to tackle pool leaks, new liner and cover installations, spring commissions, winter close downs, sand changes, sauna and steam-room maintenance, and commercial plant refurbishments and service.

If you have a swimming pool, whether one of ours or not, and you would like regular maintenance or some advice, we'd love to hear how we can help.
